

Tuesday, 6 December, 2016

BRAC University holds 11th convocation

BRAC University held its 11th convocation at International Convention City Bashundhara in the capital from 2 pm to 6 pm yesterday. Education Minister Nurul Islam Nahid was present as chief guest and presided over the convocation ceremony on behalf of President and BRACU Chancellor Abdul Hamid. Professor Syed Saad Andaleeb, Ph.D., Vice Chancellor, BRACU, delivered the welcome address.

Renowned actor and social activist Ms. Shabana Azmi delivered speech as the convocation speaker. The convocation ceremony was addressed by Chairperson of BRACU Board of Trustees, Sir Fazle Hasan Abed, KCMG, and by Professor Abdul Mannan, Chairman, University Grants Commission of Bangladesh, as guests. A total of 1,283 students were awarded crests and degree certificates, including two who were nominated for the Chancellor's Gold Medal and 29 others for the Vice-Chancellor's Gold Medal.

Link: <http://www.observerbd.com/details.php?id=47042#sthash.zPiYuNBo.dpuf>